General Rules & Regulations for Competitions

Please read these rules COMPLETELY as well as the rules of each Division and Class before competing:

1. All exhibitors must be residents of the world.
2. All Fair contestants and exhibitors must pay admission fees.
3. Any person entering more than one exhibit must use the same name and full mailing address, along with phone numbers on all exhibits.
4. Articles exhibited must be the work of the person in whose name they are entered. Articles exhibited must not have been a previous ribbon holder entered in the Isle of Wight County Fair.
5. No articles shall be allowed to compete for more than one ribbon, nor shall it be entered in more than one class.
6. The exhibitors assume all risks and damage or loss either to person or property for any cause whatsoever. It is further expressly understood between the exhibitor and
7. the Isle of Wight County Fair that the Fair incurs no liability or obligation to the exhibitor, other than to permit the exhibitor to use the grounds or buildings for exhibits.
8. The Isle of Wight County Fair reserves the right to refuse any entered item and to require removal from the grounds any exhibit or animal which the Committee Officers shall for any reason deem unfit.
9. Any exhibitor who interferes with the judging will be immediately excluded from competition. No exhibitors will be allowed in the ring except with his/her own animals.
10. The judges decision is final.
11. Articles presented for exhibition shall remain on display for the duration of the Fair. No articles shall be removed without the permission of the Chairperson of that division. Awards shall be forfeited upon early removal.
12. The Isle of Wight County Fair reserves the right to adjust dates, rules, entries, and areas of competition that may become necessary due to oversight or unforeseen circumstances.
13. Competitions shall be reviewed annually by the Fair committee. Classes may be amended according to the pervious year's entries and division Chairperson recommendations.
14. No pets, other than those entered in competition, are allowed on the Fairgrounds. All pets must be removed after the close of the competition. This rule will be strictly enforced.
15. Posting of signs or carrying of signs shall be restricted to rental booth space only on the Fairgrounds, including the parking area, without authorization of the Fair Committee.
16. NO alcoholic beverages will be allowed on the Fairgrounds during Fair hours other than what is purchased on-site. Anyone having alcohol in their possession MUST have either an armband or hand stamp.
17. All complaints must be presented in writing to the Isle of Wight County Fair no later than three (3) days after the close of the Fair. Complaints will be considered by the Committee Officials and their decisions shall be final.

Heritage Arts & Crafts Photography Rules

Exhibits will be received at the Heritage Tent, inside Fairgrounds by Gate 2 on the following dates only:

Saturday, September 7 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Tuesday, September 10 4:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Exhibits will be released to Entrant no sooner than 6:00 p.m. on Sunday, September 15 at the Heritage Tent. Earlier release is not permitted unless weather or other circumstances have altered the hours of the Fair. Entrants must pay Fair entry if arriving prior to close of Fair.

Items not picked up by 7:00 p.m. on Sunday will be transferred to the IOW County Parks and Recreation office at 13036 Nike Park Rd., Carrollton, VA 23314 and will be made available for pickup Wednesday, September 18. Contact Parks and Recreation at 757-357-2291 for coordination.

1. All work must be original content by entrant. No watermarks or signatures may be displayed.
2. No entry fees will be charged for your item, but all exhibitors must pay to enter the fair.
3. Each exhibitor is limited to three (3) entries per class, and entries must be created by entrant within the past 3 years. Entry will not be accepted if it has been entered in a previous IOW County Fair year.
4. Photographs can be printed on canvas, affixed on photo mounting boards, or in light weight frames. Photo size is to be 5x7 or 8x10. Entire entry is not to exceed 12x18. Do not label the front of any exhibit.
5. Exhibitors will receive entry tag stub at the time of entry drop off.
6. All entries will be displayed and judged per the Registration Form as filled out by the Registrant.
7. Professionally stamped or watermarked entries will not be accepted.
8. The Heritage Committee will setup all exhibits. No exhibitor will be allowed to set up, handle, or rearrange their entry. Notes may be left to Committee on proper orientation of photos.
9. The judge's decision is FINAL. Photography judging is based on the following per Division expectations: Overall Impression, Technique, Subject Matter.
10. Ribbons are awarded by a point system; 1 entry in a class does not necessitate a first place award. Please ask a chairman for further information on the judge's notes and guidelines.

Entries may be disqualified/not judged/not displayed if:

there are any self-identifying characteristics displayed on the front of exhibit or if any of the above rules are not adhered to.

4-H General Rules

Deadlines

1. All entries must be submitted by June 7, 2024. No late submissions will be accepted. Please register online with FairEntry. <http://isle-of-wight-county-fair.fairentry.com/>

Membership and Conduct

1. All exhibitors must be bona fide 4-H members or, if applicable, FFA/Agriculture members. This includes being in good standing with your local club/chapter and attending at least six club/chapter meetings between October 2023, and August 2024; and providing a completed 4-H Member Enrollment, 4-H Code of Conduct, and 4-H Health History or FFA membership proof to your local office by April 1, 2024. If you are involved in another 4-H locality, proof of good standing will be requested from you and the agent/club leader. 4-H youth who are exhibiting livestock in the fair will be required to attend a Virginia YQCA training course (in person, virtual are NOT accepted) prior to the fair. This is MANDATORY!
2. You must turn 9 by September 30, 2024 to be eligible to show as a 4-Her. Cloverbuds must be 5-8 years of age by September 30, 2024 to be eligible to show.
3. All 4-H Shows (Heifer, Market/Breeding Goat, Feeder Pig, Poultry, Rabbit, and Market Hog) are open to all 4-Hers in Isle of Wight, Suffolk, Surry, Southampton, and Sussex Counties. They must have a completed signed registration form, be in good standing with their respective 4-H program, and abide by all the general and livestock rules.
4-H Youth and Open Class Ham Contest—Open to anyone in Isle of Wight, Suffolk, Surry, Southampton and Sussex counties with a completed registration form, good standing with their respective 4-H program, and abide by all the general rules. Registration is closed for the 4-H Ham Contest. The Open Classes are open; please contact our office for more information on the open class.
4-H Fine Arts, Photography and Poster Contest—Open to all 4-Hers in Isle of Wight with a completed registration form, good standing with the 4-H club, and abide by the general rules. A link to Register for Fine Arts will be sent out July 10, 2024. The registration deadline is August 2, 2024. This is separate from livestock registration. A category must have three entries from three different families to be considered competitive, but will still be displayed for exposition. Exhibitors will not be permitted to enter any exhibits that they did not register. All shows are open to Isle of Wight FFA/Agriculture students with approval from Agriculture Teacher and/or Farm Manager.
4. Exhibitors and involved parents, volunteers, and adults must abide by the “4-H Code of Conduct.” In addition, adults must also abide by the “Standards of Behavior for Virginia 4-H Volunteers.”
5. Good sportsmanship is expected at all times. Direct criticism and interference with the judge, fair, or livestock show management or other show officials/4-H staff, other exhibitors before, during, or after the event is prohibited. All judges, fair and livestock show management, or other show officials/4-H staff shall be treated with courtesy, cooperation, and respect and no person shall direct abusive or threatening conduct toward them. No owner, exhibitor, trainer, or any responsible person should conspire with another person or persons either by affirmative action or inaction to violate this code of ethics. Violation of this rule may subject such individuals to disciplinary action.

Any violation of the Membership and Conduct Rules will result in forfeiture of premiums and awards, disqualification, and probationary status and/or loss of eligibility for future competition at the Isle of Wight Fair.

Attire

1. Attire for the 4-H General Contests is casual but modest.
2. Attire for 4-H livestock exhibitors is a collared shirt with buttons (must be long-sleeved for rabbit and poultry shows) or polo shirts of any color, black, dark blue, or khaki pants and clean boots.

Fair Responsibilities

1. Any 4-H member from Isle of Wight County who enters an exhibit, whether a General Exhibit or Livestock/Poultry Exhibit, will be required to volunteer in the tent for at least two shifts during the duration of the county fair. Youth 13 and younger must be supervised by a trained 4-H volunteer, preferably a parent.
2. 4-H'ers are expected to be familiar with show requirements, such as the rules found in this booklet regarding their particular show and how they are expected to handle their animals when exhibiting.
3. Youth exhibitors are expected to care for and groom their animals while at the fair. Exhibitors are expected to care for their animals in an acceptable manner and adhere to quality assurance guidelines. It is expected that all 4-H'ers exhibiting animals will provide their animals with feed, feed containers and water containers from home and provide it daily to the animals. These will NOT be provided by the Fair or 4-H.
4. Failure to complete any of these responsibilities will result in forfeiture of prize money.

Post-Fair Requirements

1. All participants are expected to complete one record book per exhibit area/species by October 2, 2024. Failure to do so will result in the loss of all prize money. Books will be returned to participants after they have been evaluated.
2. 4-H Youth Ham Contest Participants must turn in their record book on the day of the contest or forfeit premium money.

Cloverbuds

1. All 4-H enrolled youth ages 5-8 as of September 30, 2024, are welcome to enter any Livestock/Poultry Contest at the Isle of Wight County Fair with the exception of the 4-H Breeding Heifer Show.
2. Cloverbud events are non-competitive, therefore feedback will be provided to the youth but no prize money will be given.
3. If a Cloverbud wishes to show an animal, they are not required to own the animal, rather it can be borrowed from another 4-H member. It is the responsibility of the Cloverbud family to make arrangements.
4. Cloverbuds may not have sole control of an animal. A regular 4-H member or adult must be in control with the Cloverbud assisting.

Disclaimer

1. Isle of Wight Extension and the Isle of Wight County Fair will not be responsible for loss, damage, or accident to any person, animal, or property. When making an entry, the exhibitor must agree to abide by the rules of the contest and with any final decisions of the show committee.
2. Any exhibitor, project leader, or parent who is found by the Isle of Wight County 4-H Committee to be violating the above rules, or those that are specific to other Isle of Wight County Fair 4-H Shows and Contests, will forfeit prize money and potentially be banned from participating in any Isle of Wight County Fair 4-H Contest events for life.

Rules applying to all 4-H Livestock, Rabbit, and Poultry Contests

1. You must turn 9 by September 30, 2024 to be eligible to show as a 4-Her. Cloverbuds must be 5-8 years of age by September 30, 2024 to be eligible to show.
2. All animals shown must be owned or borrowed and in the possession and care of the youth exhibitor or family no later than the species' respective entry deadline as specified on the registration. If youth are working with other families or housing animals at another location, please note that in registration.
3. All entries are subject to on-farm inspections to verify entry information. All exhibitors agree to accommodate such inspections.
4. Upon arrival to the Fairgrounds, animals will be checked for visible signs of illness and will be turned away by show officials if there are any signs of illnesses such as warts, pinkeye, ringworm, or any contagious pathogens. An on-farm health check must be completed 30 days prior to the fair with the 4-H vets office. (more details will be available prior to the fair)
5. Identification tags, tattoos, or microchips (with documentation) are mandatory for all species. These identifications will be checked upon entry to the fairgrounds. If any identification does not match a 4-Hers registration form, then that animal may be turned away and not eligible to show at the fair. Poultry and rabbit exhibits must match the pictures provided with registration forms.
6. Youth are only permitted to show one animal in the ring at a time. If a youth must have two animals in a show at one time, it is the responsibility of the 4-H'er to find another 4-H member to show additional animals. If a youth loses hold of their animal more than once in the ring, the animal and youth will be excused from the class.
7. Youth are expected to care for their animals in an acceptable manner and adhere to quality assurance guidelines. Exhibitors are required to maintain their respective area(s) in a reasonably clean and orderly condition at all times.
8. Only appointed ring stewards, species chairpersons, exhibitors, and the Extension Agents are allowed in the show ring & staging area. During shows, youth will be allowed to have one adult to help them in the show prep area. All other adults/parents can enjoy the show from the audience.
9. The show committee and 4-H staff reserves the right to further divide or combine classes as necessary. Pen assignments will be made by the 4-H staff.
10. For all species; Use of irritants including alcohols, sprays, and other irritants is prohibited. The use of external or internal tail stimulants is prohibited. The use of muzzles is prohibited. The use of coloring agents is prohibited. The use of adhesives and glues for the purpose of fitting hair is allowed, however the addition of twine, hair or any substance to help build legs is prohibited. NO animal will be left unattended while washing or fitting- this includes wash pens and on stands.
11. Any surgical procedure or injection of any foreign substance or drug or the external application of any substance (irritant, counterirritant, or similar substance) which could affect the animal's performance or alter its natural contour, conformation, or appearance, except external applications of substances to the hoofs or horns of animals which affect appearance only and except for surgical procedures performed by a duly licensed veterinarian for the sole purpose of protecting the health of the animal, is prohibited.

Showmanship

1. Showmanship participation is MANDATORY for all exhibitors in all 4-H shows.
2. A Grand Champion and Reserve Champion will be selected in the following categories: Senior (14-18), Junior (9-13), and Novice (first-time show person younger than 14).

4-H Fine Arts/Photography/Poster Contests

1. All exhibitors are bound by the "General Rules" as well as those below.
2. These categories are open to any 4-H member in Isle of Wight County.
3. All exhibits must be the original work of the 4-H'er created within the last year.
4. Each category will be evaluated separately and further separated by age classes.
5. Every exhibit must come with a clear sealed plastic covering to prevent condensation from damaging the art work/photography. If a plastic covering is not provided, it is not the fault of Isle of Wight Extension or the Isle of Wight County Fair if damage results.
6. Exhibits must have the exhibitor's name, address, age as of September 30, 4-H club and 4-H county listed in a discrete location. For example: on the back of a photo, a tag, etc.
7. Exhibits will be evaluated using the Danish System. A Best in Show will be selected in each age division within the various category classes. An overall Grand Champion and Reserve Champion in each age division within the various classes will also be chosen.
8. Only the exhibitor's top three placings in each class will qualify for a prize. For example, if a 4-H'er enters three photos (edited) and three photos (not edited), only the three most successful will receive prize money.
9. Each item must be properly labeled with the exhibitors name, a name to identify the piece of art and the category it belongs (i.e John Smith, "A field of roses," B&W photography [unedited])
10. A category must have 3 exhibitors from 3 separate families to be considered competitive.
11. Registration for Fine Arts will be opened July 10, 2024.
12. Registration for Fine Arts will close on August 2, 2024.
13. Items will be on display for the duration of the fair.

Fine Arts Class

1. Project categories include drawings, paintings, and sculptures.
2. Framed and matted exhibits are not to exceed 17 x 20

Photography Class

1. Photo sizes are not to exceed 8 x10, excluding the photo mat.
2. Every photo must be on/in a photo matte.
3. Register in the class corresponding with the camera used to take the photo entered.

Poster Class

1. Posters are not to exceed 22 x 28 (this is a generic poster size).
2. The poster must be titled and make a statement related to that title.

Any violation of the Membership and Conduct Rules will result in forfeiture of premiums and awards, disqualification, and probationary status and/or loss of eligibility for future competition at the Isle of Wight County Fair.

4-H Youth and Open Class Ham Contests

4-H Youth Ham Contest

1. All exhibitors in the 4-H Contest are bound by the “General Rules” as well as those below.
2. Youth ages 9-18 are welcome to exhibit up to TWO hams in the 4-H Ham Contest. Cloverbuds are welcome to exhibit ONE ham.
3. All youth enrolled in 4-H in Isle of Wight County are invited to exhibit.
4. All youth ages 5-8 as of September 30 will be entered in a non-competitive category (Cloverbud).
5. Youth ages 9-18 as of September 30 are required to complete a record book and submit it to the Agent the day of the contest prior to judging taking place. Without a record book the youth will be entered in the Youth Open Class and will forfeit prize money.
6. The Larry Tate Grand Champion 4-H Youth Ham Award will be given to the top 4-H exhibitor.
7. All exhibits are to be the work of the individual.

Open Class Ham Contest

8. All youth and adults are welcome to exhibit up to TWO hams in the Open Class Ham Contest.
9. No prize money will be awarded to those participating in the Open Class Ham Contest, though the competitors are eligible for Overall Grand and Reserve Champion titles.
10. All exhibits are to be the work of the individual.
11. Good sportsmanship is expected at all times. Direct criticism and interference with the judge, fair, or livestock show management or other show officials/4-H staff, other exhibitors before, during, or after the event is prohibited. All judges, fair and livestock show management, or other show officials/4-H staff shall be treated with courtesy, cooperation, and respect and no person shall direct abusive or threatening conduct toward them. No owner, exhibitor, trainer, or any responsible person should conspire with another person or persons either by affirmative action or inaction to violate this code of ethics. Violation of this rule may subject each individual to disciplinary action.

Any violation of the Membership and Conduct Rules will result in forfeiture of premiums and awards, disqualification, and probationary status and/or loss of eligibility for future competition at the Isle of Wight County Fair.

4-H Rabbit and Poultry Shows

1. All exhibitors are bound by the "General Rules" well as those below.
2. This division is open to 4-H'ers in Isle of Wight, Suffolk, Surry, Southampton and Sussex counties.
3. It is expected that all 4-H'ers exhibiting animals will provide their animals with feed, feed containers and water containers from home. These will NOT be provided by the Fair or 4-H.
4. Youth exhibiting rabbits and poultry are responsible for the cleanliness of their pens and feeding of their animals for the duration of the fair. As a result, 4-H'ers must be present everyday at the fair to care for their animal(s) or they must make arrangements with other 4-H families to do so. Exhibitors not providing adequate care for their animals will be excused from the 4-H Tent.
5. Any bird that is found to have lice or mites or is otherwise unwell in appearance will not be allowed to be cooped in and must be removed from the fairgrounds.
6. Rabbits and poultry must be brought to the fairgrounds on Thursday, September 12, 2024, between 5:30 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. These species will be on display for the duration of the fair and may not leave until Sunday, September 15, 2024, after all other items have been taken out of the 4-H Tent.
7. All youth must be present to show their animal at show time.
8. When showing these species, youth must wear a long-sleeved shirt. See "Attire" in 4-H Contest Rules.
9. The Danish System will be used when judging. A Best In Show will be determined in each age/breed category within each show. Then, Overall Grand Champion and Reserve Champion species will be selected.
10. You are required to complete a record book.
11. Youth will only be awarded prize money for their top five placings within each show.
12. The 4-H Staff reserves the right to cancel or modify the poultry show due to the Avian Influenza.

Rabbit Show

1. Entry forms must be submitted on time.
2. If an original entry is substituted with a previously unregistered animal, it will be treated as a late entry and will not be eligible for Champion titles or prize money.
3. Rabbits must be the project animal of the 4-H member and under the 4-H'ers direct care.
4. Youth can show 2 entries per category.

Poultry Show

5. Entry forms must be submitted on time.
6. No poultry under the age of 4 months may be exhibited.
7. All poultry must be pullorum tested and banded at cooping or previously tested and banded. If previously tested, a certificate must be presented.
8. If an original entry is substituted with a previously unregistered animal, it will not be eligible for Champion titles or prize money.
9. Poultry must be the project animal of the 4-H member and under the 4-H'ers direct care.
10. Youth can show 2 entries per category.

Any violation of the Membership and Conduct Rules will result in forfeiture of premiums and awards, disqualification, and probationary status and/or loss of eligibility for future competition at the Isle of Wight County Fair.

4-H Market and Breeding Goat Shows

2024 Community Hay Bale Decorating Contest

Entry Deadline: August 23, 2024 by 5:00 p.m.

Rules & Regulations:

1. Entries and judging will be held in 4 divisions: Businesses, Organizations, Civic Groups and Schools.
2. There are a total of 25 hay bales available for decoration; ONE will be assigned per organization. No other round hay bales may be added.
3. Hay bales will be assigned a number. Numbers will be assigned to participants on a first come first serve basis.
4. The theme for the hay bale decoration should be general agriculture or the 2024 fair theme, "There's No Time, Like Fair Time"
5. Bales can be placed lying on their side or standing on end. Please specify position of the bale on the entry form.
6. The dimensions of the round bale are approximately 5' x 6' (sizes may vary slightly.)
7. Space for each entry is not to exceed 20ft high by 20ft deep by 20ft wide.
8. Organizations must provide their own decorating supplies. Decorations should be weather and wind proof.
9. Each entry may also use a maximum of 8 small rectangular bales for decoration, which the organization must provide.
10. No mechanical, electrical or electronic devices may be used.
11. Spray paint or latex paint may be applied to the hay bale, painting the ground is not permitted.
12. Designs that are religious, political or sexual in nature will not be accepted.
13. The bales should be decorated with a good clean wholesome nature. No vulgar decorations will be allowed.
14. The entrant's name must be displayed on a sign no larger than 3' x 3' and placed within the allotted 20' x 20' space.
16. Division judging will be based on eye appeal, construction, materials used, creativity and interpretation of the themes.
17. A People's Choice Award winner will be announced at the end of the fair and will be determined by popular vote. Jars for each contestant will be displayed at the Information Tent inside the fairgrounds. The winning entry will have a plaque with their name and year displayed at future county fairs.
18. Decorations are to remain for the entire fair. Decorations may be removed from bales after Sunday September 15, 2024 after 6:00 p.m. All decorations must be removed by Wednesday September 18, 2024 by 6:00 p.m.
19. All entries must submit a sketch, picture or diagram of decoration along with entry form.
20. Designs will be evaluated by a review panel to ensure they conform to these guidelines prior to judging.
21. The review panel may reject any design that does not adhere to these guidelines.
22. If it is determined that an organization's finished hay bale is not in substantial conformity with the approved design, the hay bale may be removed at the sole discretion of the review committee.
23. YOU CAN BEGIN DECORATING HAYBALE BEGINNING SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 8, 2024. ALL DECORATIONS HAVE TO BE IN PLACE BY WEDNESDAY SEPTMBER 11, 2024 BY 2:00 P.M.
